

'Boum Bricolage by Martine Viergever

Martine Viergever invites you to a small party. We will not be going to an indoor playground, neither a bowling alley or a skating rink. You don't have to bring your swim suit either. There will be no drive-in disco and no magician.

My mum will be there though. She has collected toilet paper rolls for the last few weeks, even all of our neighbours helped out. And there will be scissors and glue.

I have been busy with the perforator making confetti. We will be drinking beer with a straw. And blow party horns at each other.

You are invited. Will you join us?
